This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.

1. A new Lithuanian language weekly newspaper, Zinios, is expected to appear shortly in Sao Paulo. The manager of the paper will be Estanislau Melinunas, and the editor, Simas Baksys, a man of markedly leftist tendencies, but with no really sincere political convictions.

2. It is expected that at the outset Zinios will conceal its real complexion and purpose, but in the future it will be the organ of the Lithuanian communists in Sao Paulo.

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act 50, U.S.C. 31 and 32, as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.
